

Moving to Ancona

Transferring your residence from another city to Ancona

How to obtain the service

The person concerned must go to the registry office with a document of identification and fill in the application form for registration.

In the case of a family it is sufficient that one of the members of the family, as long as of age, declares the personal data of the family members who will move to Ancona.

In the case of cohabitation, there must be the declaration of the head of cohabitation and the person concerned.

In the case of a minor the request must be made by a person of age.

Simultaneously to the registration request, the citizens must communicate the number of their driving licence and the number plates of any possessed means (motor vehicles, trailers, motors and motorcycles).

The Civil Motorization will send labels with the updated address, to the domicile, to be attached on the documents.

Requirements

Foreign citizens: if they are moving from another Italian Commune they must present the stay permit issued by the Questura and a document of identification; if they are moving from abroad they must also show their passport or other equivalent documents.

The presented documents must be valid.
